Weddings Info Brochure

A timeless 170-acre private country estate and wedding venue

Booking weddings in 2025 and 2026

*Where elegance meets imagination:
bring your dream wedding to life*

Celebrate your love surrounded by lush gardens, rolling hills, and stunning views.

Tyrone Farm is a family-owned country estate on a 170-acre property in Pomfret, CT. Established in 1742, Tyrone Farm is a stunning example of a bygone era with quintessential New England charm. Open seasonally from June through October, our venue's rustic yet elegant feel is the perfect setting for a peaceful yet exquisite wedding day.

As a third-generation owned estate, we hold family values dear to our hearts. We're devoted to making your day unique and will work beside you to ensure you and your loved ones experience an unforgettable wedding celebration.

Located in "The Last Green Valley," we are committed to preserving Tyrone Farm for future generations through our environmental efforts, through the use of solar power and byconserving the farm's prime agricultural land.

Why we're a perfect fit

Exclusive access to the farm

We host only one wedding per weekend, providing you and your guests an intimate, private event with exclusive use of the venue.

Peaceful wedding weekend

Let the farm's natural beauty embrace you and your guests. With stunning views, rolling green hills, and historic charm, it offers a serene and calming backdrop for your perfect wedding weekend.

Endless possibilities

Your wedding should reflect you and your unique values. Our venue allows you to bring your vision to life, whether you're looking for timeless elegance or a lively way to celebrate your culture.

"Tyrone Farm was the first and only venue that my husband and I looked at. We knew right away that it had everything and more that we were looking for. All of our guests were blown away with the beauty of our venue...It was a fairy tale location for a wedding!" – Connor and Callie, Wedding Wire

Important information to know:

- The maximum count for a wedding at Tyrone Farm is 135 guests.
- We only host one wedding per weekend so you and your guests have private access to all of the farm's amenities.
- Dates are reserved once a non-refundable deposit has been made and the contract has been signed.
- All tours and meetings at the farm are by appointment only.
- We provide an hour for your ceremony and an additional four hours for your reception including your cocktail hour. All events must end by 10pm.

Rehearsals

We recommend scheduling your rehearsal a day prior to your ceremony. Tyrone Farm will assist the officiant and wedding party, and there is no fee for this service. Rehearsals must begin at the scheduled time, are limited to one hour, and must end before dark.

Catering

Tyrone Farm does not have on-site catering services, but we are happy to provide the following list of caterers who have previously worked at the farm. You are welcome to use other caterers outside of this list, but we require that they visit the farm before your event to understand our operating procedures. Please note that linens and dishware are to be coordinated with your caterer. Caterers must obtain a permit from the Northeastern Connecticut District Department of Health and provide proof of liability insurance for a minimum of $1,000,000 naming Tyrone Farm Management, Inc. and William and Diane MacLaren as additionally insured for the date of the event.

Tours

We welcome potential clients to tour the farm with the understanding that they are familiar with our fees, reception hours, and maximum guest count. Book your tour of our venue by emailing us at info@tyronefarm.com or calling us at (860) 928-3647.
